Major Thomas J. Chenoweth Monday observed the seventy-first anniversary of his birth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duley, after a visit of several months to friends in the West, have returned to their urban home at Cracker's Neck.

John Duley, Agent for Messrs. L. W. Robertson and E. B. Powell, Administrators of N. Cooper, has sold to Mr. P. P. Parker the Cooper Warehouse in West Front street for $7,500.

The remains of Chauncey P. Smith, son of the late Edward E. Smith of this city, will arrive today over the C. and O. from Fort Wayne, Ind. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

Workmen are now relaying the C. and O. track with 100-pound steel rails. They began Monday at South Portsmouth, and new rails will be put down between Russell and Cincinnati.

Some apprehension is felt by the relatives here of the Forman Missionaries in India on account of the recent dreadful earthquake in that land for their safety, as they resided in that part of the country where the dire calamity occurred.

Don't miss the beautiful entertainment at Washington Opera-house Tuesday evening, April 25th, by Mrs. Reid's class of sixteen of our most popular young ladies and thirty brightest little girls. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

MRS. E. F. WILLIAMS.

Mrs. E. F. Williams, the mother of Mrs. J. W. Clinger, died at her home, 115 Cottage street, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday.

She was born in Bath county March 1st, 1838, and moved to Maysville when seven years old.

At the age of 15 she became a member of the Baptist Church, and throughout her long life she was loved for her noble Christian traits. Mrs. Williams was the oldest member of the Maysville Church of her denomination.

Her marriage to Samuel C. Williams occurred October 1st, 1858, and to the union three children were born, Mrs. J. W. Clinger of the Sixth Ward being the only surviving one. Four grandchildren also survive.

She leaves a brother, M. C. Alexander, at Winchester, Ind., and three sisters, Mrs. L. Primmer of Ewing, Mrs. Thomas Wormald of Dayton and Mrs. M. D. Keeney of Ronda, W. Va.

The funeral will occur from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinger at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, and the interment will follow in Maysville Cemetery.

JOHN WEBER.

Mr. John Weber died at 5:30 yesterday afternoon at his home in East Fourth street, after a lingering illness of consumption.

He was about 43 years of age and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Mary Fisher.

The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning from St. Patrick's Church, the interment being in the Cemetery at Washington.

HON. J. FRANK GRANT.

Mr. William H. Cox this morning received a telegram announcing the death of Hon. J. Frank Grant at his home at Baltimore.

Some few weeks ago Mr. Grant underwent a severe surgical operation and his condition since then had been extremely critical.

Mr. Grant was one of the most prominent Odd-fellows in the United States, for years holding the office of Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Mr. Grant is a former Kentuckian, and it is probable that his remains will be brought to his old home at Petersburg for interment.

Try Fitzgerald's delicious Icecream Soda.

Miss Violet Buckingham is suffering intensely from muscular rheumatism.

Mr. James Whitaker, one of the C. and O.'s efficient yard crew, is suffering from a severe attack of lumbago.

Ashland and Russell have an epidemic of robberies. Thieves carried off about everything except the cisterns and cellars.

All members of Washington Camp No. 3, P. O. S. of A., are urged to be present at tonight's meeting, as there will be business of the utmost importance brought before the Camp.

Ora Botkins of Petersburg was painfully hurt by jumping from a streetcar at Catlettsburg. He was in such a hurry that he couldn't wait for the car to stop; but the time he will lose during the next few months will probably teach him a lesson.

POMMES DE TERRE EN SURPRISE

DAMAGE $200,000

Maysville Man Loser in Big Fire at Huntington, W. Va.

An electrical storm which raged over Huntington for four hours yesterday morning caused more than $200,000 damage.

A bolt of lightning struck the fifth floor of the wholesale grocery house of Blake Bros. & Co., and the entire building was consumed.

The flames communicated to the seven-story building of the United States Stogie Company, owned by the Trust of Pittsburgh, and this was totally destroyed.

George Brammer's machine shops were burned.

Also Hauke's wall paper and paint establishment and numerous smaller buildings.

The losses are estimated as follows:

Blake Bros. & Co., $115,000, $50,000 of this amount being on the building.

United States Stogie Company, $50,000.

Hauke Wall Paper and Paint Company, $4,000.

C. and O. Freight and Passenger Station, $3,000.

All the electrical wires in the city were put out of commission, and thousands of telephones were burned out.

Mr. Conrad Hauke, whose serious loss is noted above, went from this city a few months ago, and his many friends sympathize with him in his misfortune.

OLD WYANDOTTE WON!

The Famous Sandwich Island Queen Case Settled Yesterday.

It's all over now.

And everybody's satisfied.

During the session of the Great Council, I. O. R. M., in this city a couple of years ago, Wyandotte Tribe chartered the palatial Island Queen for a river ride for her guests.

She was to pay $350 for the boat, and a luncheon was to be served to the guests, at 25c per capita.

Of this, $100 was paid down when the contract was made, and upon arrival of the boat here a check was given for the remaining $250—the lunch to be paid for when the number of guests was ascertained.

But as such a vast number did not even see the color of a sandwich, there was a "holy howl" and a "big kick," and payment of the check was stopped.

There were just 720 passengers on the boat, and the Coney Company sued for $500—the $250 on boat hire and $180 for the so-called lunch.

Then Wyandotte's Attorneys filed a counter-suit for $1,000 damages.

There were "Labels in Admiralty" by various Proctors, and there were depositions and other damns, and the case dragged in Judge Cochran's Federal Court at Covington until yesterday, when the Sandwich Islanders adjusted their think tanks and proposed a settlement.

Wyandotte Tribe pays $300 and the Coney Company pays the costs; and what they'll have left out of that $300 won't much more than pay for the 3,000 sandwiches which their Caterer swore he served to 720 people.

It is a victory for the Maysville Indians.

Exquisite Ribbons

They are used not only for girdles, bags, and other ribbon purposes, but are also made into yokes, cuffs, vests and entire waists. Under fine net they are especially beautiful. There is a six inch ribbon of creamy tan with clusters of a huge pink flowering shrub that deepens through the rose tints into American Beauty. It is 75c a yard.
A broad white ribbon powdered with dainty pink flowers has a narrow pale blue satin edge. It is 50c a yard.
A white louisine ribbon has graceful sprays of ragged robins in pink, or blue, or yellow with long green grasses inter-mixed. It is 29c a yard.
These are but hints—three out of dozens equally beautiful. A new consignment of our popular 19c ribbon in all desirable colors.

French Printed Tulle, Organdy and Silk.

Nothing takes the place of these filmy dainty beautiful fabrics for "dressy" gowns. French Printed Tulle has large roses in shaded pink or blue on a white ground. The price is $1 a yard. 45 inches wide. French Printed Organdy comes in handsome floral designs of roses in pink, blue or heliotrope on white. The price is 40c a yard. 32 inches wide. French Printed Silk has a white ground scattered with stylish floral patterns in green and several shades of pink, or blue. This fabric washes like cotton. The price is 68c a yard. 27 inches wide.
